

PAQA Daytime Retreat Policy

All purchased seats for the Daytime Retreats are non-refundable. Once a seat is purchased, the Retreat Coordinator cannot issue refunds for any reason, including scheduling conflicts, illness or personal circumstances.

Transfer of Seats

If a registered guest is unable to attend, they may privately sell or gift their seat to another PAQA member or guest.

- When gifting or selling your seat, you are fully responsible for handling all payment arrangements with the new attendee.
- The Retreat Coordinator or Treasurer do not facilitate resale, payments or communication between parties on private sales.
- The original registrant must notify the Retreat Coordinator once the seat has been sold or gifted providing the full name and contact information of the new attendee.
